

The Katie Quackenbush Scholarship

Seventh Annual Competition

The competition is to encourage the vocal development of high school singers by offering support to assist with the cost of vocal lessons with a vocal instructor.

Awards: Based on the decision of the judges, there will be one or more awards of $400.00. The winner(s) will be featured as guest artists on the Sandlapper Singers' fall concert. Funds will be distributed directly to the teacher(s) of the winner(s) to assist with vocal study.

Eligibility Requirements: Students must be enrolled in a high school, grades 10-12, or an equivalent home-schooled program. Prior private vocal study is not required, but any financial award must be used to that end.

Repertoire Requirements: Students must prepare from memory two vocal selections, one of which must be in English. Contestants may bring their own accompanist or one will be provided. Students must have one copy of each selection for the accompanist.

Date, Time, Place: The competition will be held May 14, 2011, 9-12 a.m., at Shandon Presbyterian Church, 607 Woodrow Street, Columbia, 29205. Contestants will be notified of their specific audition time in advance. Forms may be submitted on line or by mail. Deadline for application is May 1.
